

Leeds Arts University Collections

The remit of the Leeds Arts University collections is to reflect and inform research practice, and to draw on the history and impact of the institution and its alumni.

Works and archival documents within the collection reflect the work of alumni or other artists which may include direct links to the institution or its activities.

Leeds Arts University Collections

The collection consists of:

- Leeds Arts University Archive
- Leeds Arts University Collection
- Library Special Collections

Donations to Leeds Arts University Collections

Final decisions relating to the procurement of new items into our collections will be considered and undertaken by our Acquisitions Panel. All new acquisitions and accessions will be made in accordance with internal policy and procedure, including our Ethical Fundraising Policy, to ensure that our collections continue to develop in line with our wider organisational strategy.
